NORTHWEST DISCOVERY DESTINATION

Where award-winning wines and the spirit of adventure make the perfect blend for your next getaway.

Located at the confluence of the Snake and Clearwater rivers Lewiston, Idaho, and Clarkston, Washington, sit just 738 feet above sea level. The low elevation provides a mild climate making it a great year-round location for outdoor activities.

Known as the Gateway to Hells Canyon – North America's deepest river gorge – a must see while visiting the area offering scenic vistas that rival any on the continent. A place where you can enjoy world-class whitewater, spectacular mountain peaks in the vast reaches of remote wilderness, hiking, and horseback riding. Take a guided jet boat or rafting tour into the canyon and immerse yourself in nature and culture, diverse wildlife, and artifacts from prehistoric tribes.

Visit one of our scenic tasting rooms and savor our award-winning Lewis-Clark Valley AVA wine. Wine from this region have consistently been ranked among the best of the best. Map out your wine tasting adventure and be sure to take some home with you to share.

Feed your inner historian and listen to the legends of the Nez Perce and travel the lands that Meriwether Lewis and William Clark explored all those years ago. Historical and interpretive sites dot the region telling tales of those who came before us.
